Not to be rude or anything, but this isn't really a great time for me to have a House Elf in my bedroom. Harry Potter Not to be rude or anything, but this isn't really a great time for me to have a House Elf in my bedroom. Harry Potter I have red hair! That means I'm not human! Ron Weasley Is there anything you can do? Ron Weasley It is not our abilities that show what we truly are...it is our choices. Albus Dumbledore I shall never truly be gone unless none here are loyal to me. Albus Dumbledore I shall never truly be gone unless none here are loyal to me. Albus Dumbledore Voldemort is my past, present, and future. Tom Marvolo Riddle Funny, the damage a silly little book can do, especially in the hands of a silly little girl. Tom Marvolo Riddle Let's match the powers of Lord Voldemort, heir of Salazar Slytherin against the famous Harry Potter. Tom Marvolo Riddle RONALD WEASLEY!!! HOW DARE YOU STEAL THAT CAR?! I AM ABSOLUTELY DISGUSTED!!! YOUR FATHER'S NOW FACING AN INQUIRY AT WORK, AND IT'S ENTIRELY YOUR FAULT!!! IF YOU PUT ANOTHER TOE OUT OF LINE, WE'LL BRING YOU STRAIGHT HOME!!! Page 2 Hermione Granger: Professor... I was wondering if you could tell us about the Chamber of Secrets. Minerva McGonagall: Very well. You all know, of course... that Hogwarts was founded over a thousand years ago... by the four greatest witches and wizards of the age: Godric Gryffindor, Helga Hufflepuff... Rowena Ravenclaw and Salazar Slytherin. Now, three of the founders coexisted quite harmoniously. One did not. Ron Weasley (to Harry): Three guesses who. Minerva McGonagall: Salazar Slytherin wished to be more selective... about the students admitted to Hogwarts. He believed magical learning should be kept within all-magic families. In other words, pure-bloods. Unable to sway the others, he decided to leave the school. Now, according to legend... Slytherin had built a hidden chamber in this castle... known as the Chamber of Secrets. Though, shortly before departing, he sealed it... until that time when his own true Heir returned to the school. The Heir alone... would be able to open the Chamber... and unleash the horror within, and by so doing... purge the school of all those who... in Slytherin's view, were unworthy to study magic. Hermione Granger: Muggle-borns. Minerva McGonagall: Well. Naturally, the school has been searched many times. No such chamber has been found. Hermione Granger: Professor? What exactly does legend tell us lies within the Chamber? Minerva McGonagall: The Chamber is said to be home to something... that only the Heir of Slytherin can control. It is said to be the home... of a monster. Page 3 23.3.2019 Did you really? How did it go? 23.3.2019 Making no noise and pretending that I don't exist. Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets Quotes Showing 1-30 of 649 "Harry — I think I've just understood something! I've got to go to the library!"And she sprinted away, up the stairs."What does she understand?" said Harry distractedly, still looking around, trying to tell where the voice had come from."Loads more than I do," said Ron, shaking his head."But why's she got to go to the library?""Because that's what Hermione does," said Ron, shrugging. "When in doubt, go to the library." — J.K. Rowling, Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets "Your aunt and uncle will be proud, though, won't they?" said Hermione as they got off the train and joined the crowd thronging toward the enchanted barrier. "When they hear what you did this year?""Proud?" said Harry. "Are you crazy? All those times I could've died, and I didn't manage it? They'll be furious..." — J.K Rowling, Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets "Fred and George, however, found all this very funny. They went out oftheir way to march ahead of Harry down the corridors, shouting, "Make way forthe Heir of Slytherin, seriously evil wizard coming throughPercy was deeply disapproving of this behavior."It is not a laughing matter," he said coldly."Oh, get out of the way, Percy," said Fred. "Harry's in a hurry.""Yeah, he's off to the Chamber of Secrets for a cup of tea with his fangedservant," said George, chortling.Ginny didn't find it amusing either."Oh, don't," she wailed every time Fred asked Harry loudly who he wasplanning to attack next, or when George pretended to ward Harry off with a largeclove of garlic when they met." — J.K. Rowling, Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets "Muggles have garden gnomes, too, you know," Harry told Ron as they crossed the lawn."Yeah, I've seen those things they think are gnomes," said Ron, bent double with his head in a peony bush. "like fat little Santa Clauses with fishing rods..." — J.K. Rowling, Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets "Beds empty! No note! Car gone — could have crashed — out of my mind with worry — did you care? — never, as long as I've lived — you wait until your father gets home, we never had trouble like this from Bill or Charlie or Percy —""Perfect Percy," muttered Fred."YOU COULD DO WITH TAKING A LEAF OUT OF PERCY'S BOOK!" yelled Mrs. Weasley, prodding a finger in Fred's chest. "You could have died, you could have been seen, you could have lost your father his job —"It seemed to go on for hours. Mrs. Weasley had shouted herself hoarse before she turned on Harry, who backed away."I'm very pleased to see you, Harry, dear," she said." — J.K. Rowling, Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets "The three of them fell silent. After a long pause, Hermione voiced the knottiest question of all in a hesitant voice. "Do you think we should go and ask Hagrid about it all?" "That'd be a cheerful visit," said Ron, " 'Hello, Hagrid. Tell us, have you been setting anything mad and hairy loose in the castle lately?" — J.K. Rowling, Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets "Hag on . . ." Harry muttered to Ron. "There's an empty chair at the staff table. . . . Where's Snape?""Maybe he's ill!" said Ron hopefully. "Maybe he's left," said Harry, "because he missed out on the Defense Against the Dark Arts job again!""Or he might have been sacked!" said Ron enthusiastically. "I mean, everyone hates him —""Or maybe," said a very cold voice right behind them, "he's waiting to hear why you two didn't arrive on the school train."Harry spun around. There, his black robes rippling in a cold breeze, stood Severus Snape." — J.K. Rowling, Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets albus dumbledore quotes harry potter and the chamber of secrets
